Flint RiverQuarium announces August Beat the Heat promotion

Every Sunday in August Flint RiverQuarium guests will receive $5 admission to the Flint RiverQuarium. Tickets can be upgraded to include a movie at the Imagination Theater for an additional $1. These prices cannot be combined with any other discounts. The Flint RiverQuarium is open from 1-5 pm on Sunday.

On the first and third Sundays of each month, including August, the Flint RiverQuarium presents Discovery Days featuring themed crafts and activities for the whole family. The theme for August is “The Skin They’re In.”

Alien Attack: Target Everglade, is currently on exhibit in the Flint RiverQuarium Adventure Center. Alien Attack offers a top-ten countdown of the most dangerous plants and animals and their threat to the area's fragile ecosystems. Live aliens on display include the Burmese python, Nile monitor lizard, exotic frogs, and more.

Also currently on display in the main building is The Flint River in Photographs, an exhibition of 25 images of the Flint River by Mitchell County native and photographer Waymon Cross. These images capture the river during different seasons, following heavy rains and in the throes of droughts.

The Flint RiverQuarium is southwest Georgia's premier aquarium, featuring more than 1,000 animals that call the Flint River watershed home. The Flint RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue in downtown Albany, Georgia. Regular operating hours are Monday-Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sunday 1 p.m.-5 p.m.
