Flint RiverQuarium announces Grandparents Day promotion

On Sunday, September 12, grandparents and their grandchildren can celebrate Grandparents Day with a special deal at the Flint RiverQuarium. One grandparent will be admitted free with each paid child's admission. These prices cannot be combined with any other discounts. The Flint RiverQuarium is open from 1-5 pm on Sunday.

"The RiverQuarium is a place that my whole family enjoys every time we visit," said Flint RiverQuarium member and grandparent Bill Swan. "I take my grandchildren there often and we always have a great time together."

Alien Attack: Target Everglade, is currently on exhibit in the Flint RiverQuarium Adventure Center. Alien Attack offers a top-ten countdown of the most dangerous plants and animals and their threat to the area's fragile ecosystems. Live aliens on display include the Burmese python, Nile monitor lizard, exotic frogs, and more.

The Flint RiverQuarium is southwest Georgia's premier aquarium, featuring more than 1,000 animals that call the Flint River watershed home. The Flint RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue in downtown Albany, Georgia. Regular operating hours are Monday-Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sunday 1 p.m.-5 p.m.
