Science After Sunset: “Dinner for 1200”

The Flint RiverQuarium unveils a new, bi-monthly education program, Science after Sunset, on February 1, 2011, at 6:00 p.m. at the RiverQuarium. The first installment is “Dinner for 1200.”

The RiverQuarium’s Chief Curator, Richard Brown, will engage and entertain participants with an interactive presentation on the various diets and nutritional needs of several of the approximately 1200 animals that comprise the organization’s living collection.

Join others for refreshments and light hors d’oeuvres following Mr. Brown’s program.

Admission for RiverQuarium members is $6 per person; $8 per person for non-members.

Reservations are requested. The RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue, in downtown Albany. Please contact Ashley Kenny or Vicki Churchman at (229) 639-2650 to make a reservation or for more information.

The Flint RiverQuarium is southwest Georgia’s premier aquarium, featuring more than 1,000 animals that call the Flint River watershed home. The Flint RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue in downtown Albany, Georgia. Regular operating hours are Monday-Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sunday 1 p.m.-5 p.m.
