Science After Sunset: “Under Attack: Aquarium Pests and Parasites”

The Flint RiverQuarium’s bi-monthly education program, Science after Sunset, continues Tuesday, August 2, 2011, at 6:00 p.m. at the RiverQuarium. This month’s theme is “Under Attack: Aquarium Pests and Parasites.”

The RiverQuarium’s animal husbandry assistant, Daniel Churchman, will talk about the challenges of preventing parasites in open-air aquariums, such as the Flint RiverQuarium.

Refreshments and light hors d’oeuvres will be served following the program, and attendees are welcome to tour the RiverQuarium. Admission for RiverQuarium members is $6 per person; $8 per person for non-members. Reservations are requested. The RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue, in downtown Albany. Please contact Ruby Ellis at (229) 639-2650 to make a reservation or for more information.

The Flint RiverQuarium is southwest Georgia’s premier aquarium, featuring more than 1,000 animals that call the Flint River watershed home. The Flint RiverQuarium is located at 101 Pine Avenue in downtown Albany, Georgia. Regular operating hours are Monday-Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sunday 1 p.m.-5 p.m.
