4-H2O Camp

The Flint RiverQuarium will welcome more than 100 4-H members from surrounding counties Tuesday, June 5, as part of the fifth annual 4-H2O Camp. The Flint RiverQuarium, University of Georgia's C. M. Stripling Irrigation Research Park and Southwest Georgia 4-H are once again teaming up to offer the three-day summer camp to 4-H students June 5-7. 4-H'ers will participate in hands-on science activities focusing on water and ecosystems with a special exhibit tour and Imagination Theater movie at the Flint RiverQuarium on the first day. The next day, 4-H'ers will be introduced to agricultural topics at the research park in Camilla, GA. The participants will then have some fun in the sun on the final day at Water World in Dothan, AL.
